Trai defends amendments to cable tariff framework

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, January 13

AMENDMENTS TO THE new regulatory framework for cable operators, which has been implemented, thereby improving government revenue, it said.

However, the intended benefit for consumers to enable the freedom of choice could not be achieved completely due to misuse of available flexibility by a group of service providers, it said.

The New Tariff Order (NTO) 2.0, while facilitating consumers to choose channels of their choice either as a-la-carte or bouquet of channels, also ensures that prices of a-la-carte channels are not illusory.

In a bid to protect consumer interests, Trai on Wednesday made amendments to the new regulatory framework for cable and broadcasting services under which cable TV users will be able to access more channels at lower subscription price.

Significantly, Trai capped at Rs 160 the amount consumers will have to pay monthly for all free to air channels.
